Transfer Credit

CSU is committed to helping students make the most of their previously earned academic credits, professional licenses, certificates and training programs. CSU also considers credit by examination, and knowledge learned by experiential or equivalent learning.

Certifications from organizations such as those listed below, may be eligible for transfer credit, as applicable, towards fire science, fire administration, and emergency medical service administration degree programs.

- » Pro Board / National Professional Qualifications (NPQ)
- » International Fire Service Accreditation Congress (IFSAC)
- » National Registry of Emergency Medical Technicians (NREMT)
- » National Fire Academy (NFA)
- » Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA)
- » National Fire Protection Association (NFPA)

To make the process as easy as possible, CSU will request transcripts from your previously attended institutions on your behalf, at no cost to you.

Scholarships

Fire Scholarship—Each year, Columbia Southern University awards two scholarships to current fire science or fire administration students. Those that plan to enroll in a fire-related degree program are also eligible to apply. Each scholarship covers up to 60 credit hours toward one online degree program.

Online Learning Options

At Columbia Southern University, we know balancing work, family and education can be challenging. That's why we've designed convenient online learning options that work for busy adults: LifePace Learning®, Term Enrollment and Veterans Flexible Enrollment.

LifePace Learning®

Start anytime with LifePace Learning®. Enrollment is open 365 days a year. Progress through your course at your own pace, and finish in as early as four weeks or as long as 10 weeks.

Term Enrollment

This semester-based enrollment option gives you the flexibility to complete assignments at your own pace while working within set course start and end dates. A term lasts approximately nine weeks.

Veterans Flexible Enrollment

Available to students using VA educational benefits, Veterans Flexible Enrollment combines the freedom of working at your own pace with the structure of set start and end dates. Veterans Flexible Enrollment terms last approximately nine weeks.

Industry Affiliations

CSU's fire science degree programs are recognized through the Fire and Emergency Services Higher Education (FESHE) initiative, a network of the U.S. Fire Administration's National Fire Academy.
